2021 UPDATED RULES

- No Capacity Restrictions this year.
- No online Reservation System this year. GUARDS WILL BE KEEPING A TALLY OF RESIDENTS AND GUESTS to help us better plan for staffing. PLEASE CHECK IN WITH THE GUARD WHEN YOU ARRIVE.
- KEYBOB will continue to be used to enter the pool. Keyfobs will transfer with residence if a home sells. All HOA dues need to be paid up before keyfobs are activated for the season. If you lose your keyfob a $25 replacement fee will incur. EACH PAID MEMBERSHIP WILL GET 2 KEYFOBS
- EACH MEMBERSHIP MAY INVITE UP TO 4 GUESTS TOTAL for their membership. This does not mean 4 people per keyfob or 4 people per person in your party. Members who sneak in large parties will be documented by staff and may result in loss of keyfob/membership.

KEY FOB GUIDELINES

- Each membership will be allowed TWO key fob devices
- If your keyfob is lost or stolen please email: westglenpool@gmail.com and we will deactivate it and issue you a new key fob. Cost to replace lost or stolen key fob $25/each.
- Key fobs will be given to the household to keep. In the event that you sell your home it is your responsibility to give the keyfob to the new owner, and contact us at westglenpool@gmail.com to communicate the change.

STANDARD POOL RULES

- Lifeguards are the authority concerning pool safety always.
- Anyone (including adults) disobeying the rules, ignoring the lifeguard's instructions or endangering the safety of any other person will be asked to leave the pool area. Repeat violators may result in suspension of pool privileges for up to the remainder of season by having their pool pass revoked.
- No pushing patrons into the pool. No running allowed in the pool area. No excessive "horseplay" in the pool area.
- No diving where designated. Flips or inward dives are prohibited from the sides of the pool.
